COVENANT OF LIVING WATER

Water is a fundamental element of Your Creation. From the beginning, Your Spirit moved over the waters, marking the origin of all life and order. When You separated the land from the waters, they covered more of the earth than the land itself. Water is so important in Your Creation that You used it as an instrument of judgment in the flood during Noah's time, bringing justice upon sinners and giving humanity a new beginning. Later, You established a covenant, promising never again to destroy the earth with water, reflecting Your immense mercy.

Through the waters of the Red Sea, You delivered Your people. Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the waters divided so that Your people could cross on dry ground. When Pharaoh's entire cavalry followed them into the sea, You commanded Moses to stretch out his hand again, causing the waters to fall upon the Egyptians. Thus, You saved Israel that day; Your people saw the Egyptians dead on the shore and feared You.

The greatest Covenant was established through the Water and Blood that flowed from Your body on the Cross of Calvary for the forgiveness of our sins. Through salvation, You cleanse our conscience, bringing us to purity, renewal, life, and the power of God. Lord Jesus Christ, You are our source of eternal life.

"...just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her, so that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, that He might present to Himself the church in all her glory, having no spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she would be holy and blameless."

Ephesians 5:25b-27 NASB

Now we are Your righteous ones, like trees planted by streams of "living water," we prosper in You. Whoever drinks of Your water will never thirst again.

Through Naaman's obedience to the command to immerse himself, water became an instrument of healing and restoration. This covenant demonstrates that You use our acts of obedience to manifest Your power on our behalf.
